Don't Waste Springfield Water

Getting there first with the most is the basis of successful war.

Modern miracles of war production occur daily, but water supply facilities cannot be expanded because of the need of vital materials for guns, tanks and planes.

There is probably enough water for War Industries and essential use, but LAWN SPRINKLING is a luxury that must be stopped for the duration of the war.

Philadelphia Suburban Water Company

Will Improve Main Traffic Artery

Section Of Avenue Leading Into Old Lancaster Rd. To Be Repaved

The lower part of Montgomery Ave., where it runs into Old Lancaster Rd. at Cynwyd will be re-surfaced by the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners. Fred C. Peters, Ardmore, is president of the Board.

Montgomery Ave. with Old Lancaster rd. is the principal Lower Merion Township traffic feeder into the 54th and City Line ave. section. Re-pavement of this portion of the highway was begun by the commissioners last year when the upper section of the highway was improved.

The present portion to be re-surfaced extends from Old Gulph rd. to Old Lancaster rd.

Estimated cost of the work, prepared by county engineers, is $33,000. Approval of the priority under which the bituminous material will be obtained for the resurfacing has been received from the Federal Works Agency of the Public Roads Administration. Inability to obtain this priority last Spring halted the work.

The Agency in granting this priority said: "The project is certified as necessary to successful prosecution of the war."

Procedure of the highway workers will be to level off the roadway and then resurface it with new material. About 30 working days will be consumed on the project.

Named To Committee

Mrs. Howard Wayne Smith, of Ardmore, has been named to an important national committee by the president of the Northern Baptist Convention, the Rev. Dr. Joseph O. Robbins. She will be a member of the Committee on the Devotional Booklet, "The Secret Place."

Summer Enrollment

There are 207 pupils enrolled for courses in the Lower Merion Summer school. Ten regular and two substitute teachers are being used. English, plane geometry, typing and United States history are being taught.

Whose appointment as fire marshal of Lower Merion Township was announced by commissioners Wednesday night. Benson lives at W. Braddock la. and Trent rd., Penn Wynne, and is an insurance adjuster for the Keystone Casualty Insurance Company. Through the past 16 years he has grown up with the Penn Wynne-Overbrook Fire Company of which he is president and also deputy chief. Also, he is vice-chairman of the Lower Merion Township Fire Department. Benson, who fills a vacancy caused by the death of Frank Pollock, will take over his new duties August 1 at a salary of $2700 a year.

At the same time commissioners designated William Titlow, Cynwyd, who has been acting fire marshal, as deputy fire marshal and assistant inspector in the Township building department where he is now employed.

Dealers to Pay 4 Cents per Pound For Household Fats

The importance of saving household fats is being seriously emphasized by the Conservation Division of the War Production Board. Local chairmen of the American Meat Institute during the present week have been contacting meat dealers and arranging for them to purchase household fats from housewives.

The Advisory Committee on Salvage in Harrisburg reports, however, that there will be a reduction of one cent per pound due to the lowering of the ceiling price from six cents to five cents a pound on household grease sold to renderers from meat dealers and other sources. This will reduce the price to the housewife who takes her can of household fat to the meat dealer to 4c a pound, since the meat dealer makes a charge of one cent a pound for handling.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

SEVERAL weeks ago in this column we pointed out that Margaret Leech's Pulitzer Prize winning book-of-the month "Reveille in Washington," was the best book about the nation's capital in Civil War days. For the best book about Washington today, read W. M. Kiplinger's "Washington Is Like That."

W. M. KIPLINGER

Mr. Kiplinger is editor and publisher of the well-known Kiplinger Washington Letter, to which thousands of business men throughout the country subscribe. There are probably very few men living who have a better knowledge of the ins and outs of the District of Columbia.

"Washington Is Like That" is no mere guide book. Writing in a lively, chatty style, the author does not hesitate to give criticism and offer opinions on different phases of life in the capital.

Since the most prominent person in Washington is the President, Mr. Kiplinger devotes an entire chapter to Mr. Big, as he calls the chief executive of the nation. Another section of the book contains thumbnail sketches of fifty-five of the leaders in Washington, including Henry Wallace, Cordell Hull, Harry Hopkins, Frances Perkins, and many others whose names are famous.

Thumbing at random through the book, we discover a study of the Supreme Court, a discussion of lawyers, lobbyists and farmers, a chapter on the different government departments and their services, and a description of the unique qualities of Washington itself as a city.

Mr. Kiplinger has some interesting things to say about women in Washington. Forty-five per cent of the women there work outside their homes at wage-earning jobs—a far higher percentage than that of any other comparable city in the nation. Fifty per cent of the Government jobs are held by women. The women outnumber the men by the ratio of ten to nine, resulting in a scramble, he says, for eligible males.

But women are important in Washington now, in spite of the fact that years ago repeated attempts were made by anti-feminists to keep them in the home. In fact, as late as 1911, the current Civil Service Commissioner demanded that no more women stenographers should be hired. "The blondes," he thundered, "are too frivolous, and the brunettes are too chatty."

"The Importance of Living," by the Chinese journalist and philosopher, Lin Yutang, was recently banned in Italy. When Dr. Lin was asked why he thought this was done, he said that possibly the following sentence in his book was among those parts resented by the fascists: "As for international understanding, I feel that macaroni has done more for our appreciation of Italy than Mussolini."

"The only thing I do not understand," Dr. Lin stated, "is why my book wasn't banned before. Evidently the Fascist bureaucracy is not as efficient as it is reputed to be." "The Importance of Living" was a Book-of-the-Month Club selection several years back and was for many months on all best-seller lists in the nation.

Confirm Nellings Appointment School and Township Pass Resolutions On Assessors

The Lower Merion School Board on Monday night confirmed the appointment of George B. Nellings, Gladwyne, as one of the Township's two assessors.

Appointment of Nellings was announced recently by the Montgomery County Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes to replace William V. W. Patterson, who died recently.

The school district contributes $1500 each to the salaries of the two assessors and the Township and County contribute like amounts. Reappointment of Dr. Charles Seidel, as the other assessor, was also announced.

Meeting at the School Administration Building in Ardmore, the directors held their last session of the Summer. They will not meet again until September 21.

A similar resolution confirming the appointment of Nellings as assessor and reappointment of Dr. Seidel was passed by Lower Merion commissioners when they met in the Township Building, Ardmore, Wednesday night.

The School Board by the same resolution also appropriated $600 to Helen C. Eagle, who is connected with the assessor's office.

Another reappointment of the School Board was to continue for a year the services of Henry R. Heebner as solicitor.

Borough Resident

Council to enforce quiet along Narberth av. by taking whatever steps are necessary.

An investigation and stricter control by the Borough police was promised by Roland Fier, president of the Council.

New Parking Rules

Upon recommendation of the Public Safety committee, it was ruled by the Council that parking shall be prohibited on the north side of Elmwood av. between Maple and Narberth avs. and on the west side of Essex av. from Elmwood to Woodside avs. between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. The ruling was necessitated by the fact that commuters are now parking along both sides of these streets, making it impossible for two cars to pass between them.

During June, according to the police report, there were three stop sign violations, 15 cases of overtime parking, seven other parking violations, one arrest for driving under the influence of liquor and 18 warning tags given out in the Station Circle and the new parking zone on Haverford av. between Forrest and Essex avs.

To Index Ordinances
After hearings William Walker of the Institute of State and Local Government at the University of Pennsylvania, the Borough Council decided to employ the Institute to make a card-file index of the Borough's ordinances. This is one of the Institute's standard projects and greatly simplifies reference work.

A request by the Narberth Child Health Center for an appropriation from the Council to assist in establishing a Dental Clinic in Narberth was tabled until Council could obtain further information and discuss the project with other interested groups.

Florence Reed in "Suspect" Opens Monday At the Bellevue

In England it was even more popular than "Ladies in Retirement," by the same authors.

"Suspect" opens Monday evening, July 20, with Miss Reed in the role of simple Mrs. Smith who lives remote from society with her companion maid, Theron Bamberger, director of the Bucks County Playhouse, has assembled a notable Broadway cast to support Florence Reed, including Clarence Derwent, J. W. Austin, Viola Roache, Nat Burns, Kenneth Treseder, Margery Maude, Frances Reid and Richard Davis. Richard Beckhard is the director.

Currently at the Playhouse, through Saturday evening, are the Hartmans, famed comedy dancers in "Tonight at 8.30."

Wright Reports Defense Progress

Volunteers Predominate In 25,000 Engaged in Defense Work in Co.

More than 25,000 citizens of Montgomery County are participating in Civilian Defense activities at the present time, according to a report submitted by Guler S. Wright, Director General of the Montgomery County Defense Council, to County Commissioners Fred C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegass and Raymond K. Mensch.

Wright's report, which covers the first year's work on Civilian Defense in the County, concludes with the following statement:

"It is to be noted that the results obtained in Montgomery County are largely through the efforts of men who have willingly volunteered their services. Ours has been a campaign of education and appeal to the American spirit, and never, knowingly, one of undue pressure. We have dealt with the local communities of the County and they have given us a response of which they can be proud."

The report points out that 61 local Councils of Defense have been organized and that 45 are in good working condition. It also states that 20,000 of the 25,000 citizens participating in Civilian Defense activities are fully qualified by training or service.

Subjects covered in Director General Wright's report include the following:

Air Raid Precautions, Radio warning, Air Raid wardens, demolition squads, decontamination squads, fire watchers, Auxiliary firemen, Auxiliary police, emergency medical service, messenger service, feeding units, control centers, special services, training salvage, victory gardens, women's activities, and Montgomery County Defense Council office.

Brookline Stops Winning Streak

St. Margaret's Pulls Out Of Tailspin To Regain First Place

For a time it seemed as though the Sacred Heart team, of Manoa, was off to another of those wild surges which carried the club into the Montdel League finals last season. But after the Manoaites had won five straight games Annunciation, of Brookline, stepped into the picture Monday at Manoa and brought an end to the string with an 8-5 verdict.

Annunciation needed that win, for the Brooks, in first place by several percentage points as recently as Thursday, staked St. Margaret's, of Narberth, to a 10-0 lead in the first inning of their battle for first place at Brookline Thursday, went down to a thumping 16-5 lacing.

Sacred Heart won three of those five games in three days. The Manoa clan slugged it out with Good Counsel, of Bryn Mawr, on the latter's field Friday night, staging a six run rally in the sixth to gain an 11-9 decision. Both teams hammered the ball hard, yet both Lee Eppley, for Sacred Heart, and Jim Hickey, for the losers, went the route.

Sunday St. Colman's tried another double bill and again came off with two black eyes. Sacred Heart gave Tom Whyte good support, while hammering the ball to all corners of the lot to gain a 14-4 verdict in the opener of the twin bill at Ardmore. McAdoo and Eppley each had homers to feature the assault.

In the second game Johnnie Norris pitched a no-hit, no-run game to collect a 15-0 verdict. He struck out eight and walked two in gaining the second no-hitter of the Montdel season. Earlier Jack McManigle, of St. Duns, had blanked St. Colman's without a hit. Sacred Heart collected 20 hits to back up Norris' fine hurling.

St. Margaret's pulled out of its tail-spin to notch a pair of triumphs to regain first place after losing it for a short time last week. The borough nine gained revenge on St. Thomas for an earlier setback when it mangled Bill Roger's team 14-3 at Narberth Sunday. Phil Cramm, victim of that setback, pitched three-hit ball, struck out twelve and paced the 16-hit attack with three singles. Charlie Becker also had three hits while Albie Becker had a pair of triples, the first in the opening round with bases loaded off Joe Roarty, first of three St. Thomas pitchers to see action.

Coast League; Addison Sabean Montreal Red Hens. Had tryout with Boston Red Sox.

The team will be accompanied by Captain C. Brewster Grace, Jr., former Germantown Academy and Lehigh athlete who is post recreation officer; and Albert B. Icke assistant manager.

Due to several players being out of town on vacations and others working in defense plants the starting lineup of the league all-stars is somewhat uncertain. Bill O'Donnell, Gladwyne's ace pitcher, and Yitz Crompton, of the same team, are the only stars chosen by a vote of fans, managers and sports scribes who definitely won't be able to make the game.

Gene Davis, of Narberth, manager of the all-stars, announced Wednesday the starting lineup probably would look something like this:

George Myers, Gladwyne, 2b
Fred Brittingham, Overbrook, ss
Ollie Boyle, Manoa, cf
Buddy Walker, Narberth, 1b
Joey Burns, Narberth, 3b
Harry Fok, Narberth, cf
Joe Riley, Manoa, rf
Milt Vliet, Gladwyne, c
Walt Cantwell, Manoa, p

Davis, who will be assisted by Frank Matthew, of Manoa, expects to work Cantwell only three innings. Ray Persutti, Gladwyne, and Bob Allison, Manoa, are the other hurlers who will see action. Catchers Allie Gwynn, Manoa, and Frank O'Neill, Brookline, also will alternate with Vliet. Other players slated to play are Walt Rosenfeld and Joe Blong, Collegians; Pooch Serra and Russ Herrmann, Narberth; and Allie Shuckman, Gladwyne. The latter was substituted for Yitz Crompton, who no longer is with Gladwyne.

CALLING THE TURN

We must confess mixed opinions over the possibility of Bill Anderson quitting Lower Merion High School for the head basketball coaching job at Yale.

The news didn't startle us to any extent because Andy has had many previous offers yet was always happy and content to remain at Lower Merion. And it's pretty hard to believe he'd leave here for Yale of all places.

Not that we have anything against Yale. But the basketball setup there isn't very appealing, at least not on the surface. It has been regarded almost as a minor sport and after all the excitement, big crowds, hoopla and the many championships that have been part of basketball at Lower Merion we just don't see how Andy would be happy up there.

Now if it had been Penn instead of Yale we could understand the move. Penn has the biggest arena in the East and the facilities to become a major basketball power in the country under proper conditions. And I believe Andy could very easily provide the latter.

ANOTHER WINNER COMING UP

It's also hard to visualize Anderson leaving L. M. when he has another squad coming up good enough, according to those in the know, to win another state title. Also a college job at this time doesn't promise to be too pleasant because most college athletes are going to be in the armed forces for the duration.

Latest information from Yale is that Red Rolfe, of the New York Yankees who has been assistant basketball coach of the Elis, is the No. 1 choice for the job. If he turns it down then Anderson will get the job. Rolfe publicly announced Tuesday that he'd like the job if terms were right.

Despite all the above arguments we haven't been able to convince ourselves that Anderson won't leave.

The fact that Anderson went to Yale to see about the job indicates that he's seriously interested. But what worries us most is the fact that when he came home from Yale he told his son, Billy, Jr., that "he didn't think he had much chance because there were two other very good men in line."

You'll smile at this characteristic pessimism of the Maroon mentor. But don't forget, usually when he's the gloomiest, things turn out the brightest for him.

ATTABOY NARBERTH!
Residents of Narberth are to be congratulated for the wonderful cooperation they're giving the Main Line League in putting over the Navy Relief baseball game between the U. S. Marines and league all-stars at Narberth Friday night.

With J. J. Cabrey, a former publisher of Our Town spearheading the enthusiasm, all the community organizations from the Civilian Defense Council to the Boy Scouts have pitched in, selling tickets and doing everything possible to assure the game being a success.

Cabrey sounded the keynote during a town meeting last week. "The honor of Narberth has been challenged by the mere fact that this very important game has been awarded to our town," he said. "We've got to have a crowd and a check for the Navy Relief Fund that will do honor to our community."

He probably didn't realize it, but with those words he rekindled a rivalry between Narberth and Manoa. Both are red hot baseball communities and nothing gives them more satisfaction than to produce a stronger team than the other. As a result, the Main Line

League pennant has been going back and forth to these towns for the past half dozen years.

THAT'S THE SPIRIT!

So far Manoa has the edge this year, having defeated Narberth in three straight games. Narberth believes it can redeem itself by turning out a larger crowd and producing more money for the Navy Relief Fund than Manoa when the latter plays host to the league all-stars and Fort Dix in an Army Relief game July 28.

"Manoa gets a break in having a better attraction for its service game, but we'll raise the most money for the service fund," said one Narberth rooster yesterday.

A Manoa fan came back with this crack "Gwan, there isn't anything in Narberth that we can't surpass. We'll have the largest crowd in Main Line League history at our game, and we'll better the amount of dough raised at the Narberth game. Just tell us the amount and we'll beat it!"

So that's the way it is. Let's hope both communities have crowds beyond all expectations. The Army and Navy deserve them. Have you bought your ticket yet?

Council Approves July 4 Program

The following letter to the chairman of the "Narberth Day" Fourth of July celebration registers official approval of the patriotic observance:

"The members of Borough Council, in regular meeting assembled last evening, asked me, as chairman of the Property Committee, to write you, expressing their congratulations and appreciation to you and the members of your committee for the splendid arrangements of sports and amusements which were made on July 4th at the Recreation Field. It was the best ever, and we hope that similar plans can be made in future years."

Very sincerely,
(signed)
William P. Davies, Chairman
Property Committee, Borough of Narberth."

Taxpayers Get Liens

their whole-hearted support and endorsement.

Under the law, local tax collectors are required to file liens on or before the first Monday in May with the County Commissioners against any properties for which real estate taxes are unpaid by that date. If the taxes remain unsatisfied after the legal period, the County Treasurer is required by law to sell the properties at public sale.

Heretofore, no notice had been given to the taxpayer when liens were filed by the tax collector, unless, as in some isolated cases, the tax collector took it upon himself to notify the taxpayer that liens were about to be filed or had been filed.

The statements being sent out by the Commissioners to taxpayers will enable them to check with their own records, and, if discrepancies exist, take up the matter with the proper authorities instead of waiting until a Treasurer's tax sale.

The statement of unpaid 1941 taxes, the first batch of which were mailed today, sets forth the amount of school, borough or township, County and Institution district taxes due, plus penalties, and then reads as follows:

"Your local tax collector has returned to our office the above statement of taxes as due and owing by you, and for the purpose of having the same listed as required by an act of the Legislature."

"We are submitting this information, so that you may be informed of the status of your 1941 taxes."

"If the above statement of your taxes does not conform with your records, kindly notify us immediately."

The statement is signed, "Commissioners of Montgomery County, William T. Muldrew, Chief Clerk."

First Place At Stake Sunday In Gladwyne-Manoa Battle

The neck and neck struggle between Gladwyne and Manoa will reach another of its crucial stages when the Main Line Baseball League contenders clash Sunday at Gladwyne. It will be their fourth meeting of the season.

Gladwyne, pacesetter from the first game, handed the defending champions 2-0 and 4-2 defeats before Manoa finally topped the Keynells, 4-0. This latter victory, which came on the Fourth of July, lifted Manoa on even terms with the Neillings-Keyes outfit and another triumph this week-end would give it the inside track in the last six weeks of the league race.

If Manoa does break through to take the lead for the first time this season it probably will be due to the airtight pitching of Walter Cantwell, the rugged right hander. Cantwell turned in his fifth straight victory last Saturday as he tamed the formidable Irvin Collegians with five hits in gaining a 3-1 verdict.

The veteran Howard Cates, former International Leaguer who has been coach of the Manoaites for quite a few years, took the mound in a pinchhit role and helped hurl the defending champs to a 4-2 victory over Overbrook on Sunday. Cates gave up only two hits in five innings before Bob Allison arrived to finish the game. The latter was touched for three hits and both Overbrook runs.

Gladwyne kept pace with Manoa by downing Brookline, 3-0, on Saturday and by whipping Narberth, 7-1, on Sunday. George Glancy, a newcomer from Roxborough, gave the Keynells their shutout, allowing the Brooks just four hits. Bill O'Donnell was in his best form on Sunday, holding Narberth's usually heavy hitters to nine scattered blows for his sixth triumph against three defeats.

Bunny Henderson, Manoa second baseman, was the hero of the Overbrook game. He drove in three runs with two doubles and two singles. Henderson also had two hits against the Collegians, sharing the spearhead of the attack with Ollie Boyle and Chet Zercher, who connected for a like number. Boyle's single, a triple by Henderson and a double by Dave McKay netted two runs in the sixth and clinched the decision over the Collegians.

Gladwyne owed its victory over Narberth, its third of the campaign by the way, to a four run outburst in the second inning. Kucheruk and Myers paced the assault on the boroughites with three hits. Kucheruk also had three hits against Brookline. Glancy fanned 11 for an impressive league debut in this latter game.

Narberth bowled over Overbrook, 8-0, on Saturday, bunting 11 hits in the first, fourth and sixth innings as Lefty Tomlinson applied the whitewash, permitting just six bingles. The veteran Buddy Walker led the Davismen with three singles.

A big fifth inning which netted five runs gave the Collegians a 7-2 victory over Brookline in a twilight game Saturday at Manoa. Singles by Rosenfeld, Blong and Budenz and a triple by Vendetta were the big blows in this inning. Manager Irvin came up with another capable pitcher in Lattanza, who limited the Brooks to six hits. Aside from the fifth inning, Tom Steuber pitched nice ball for the losers. Frank O'Neill led the Hares with two hits.

The Collegians will endeavor to tie Narberth for third place when they clash Saturday at Narberth. Brookline invades Manoa and Gladwyne entertains Overbrook in other Saturday tilts. Narberth and Overbrook will clash at an undesignated site in Sunday contests.
